

Junior arbitration associate (NQ)

Gentium Law Group is a dynamic and successful new arbitration boutique law firm. It is looking for a Junior Arbitration Associate to complete its team

The ideal person will have the following:

- Top grades from an internationally recognised law school (recent graduate)
- Bar qualification in any jurisdiction or about to take bar exam, preferably common law jurisdiction
- Demonstrated commitment to learning the skills and practice of arbitration
- Demonstrated desire and legal capability to live/work in Geneva and/or elsewhere in Switzerland
- Youthfulness of attitude indicating a willingness to learn both technical and strategic aspects of a job
- Agreeability to working in a multicultural office environment
- Professional fluency in English is a must (sufficient to conduct advocacy); professional fluency in French is desirable but not essential
- An ability to work in a small firm environment, as a compliment with a group of very talented people; a willingness and capability to take on more responsibilities than might be typical in an arbitration practice from the outset
- A desire to work in an informal, relaxed and fun atmosphere in which the very highest quality of work is nevertheless regarded as a prerequisite

In addition to a market rate salary, the firm offers two sorts of bonuses: one is a proportion of profits, distributed to staff; the other is an origination bonus for all work brought in.

We may consider flexible hours for the right candidate.

Due to permit restrictions in Switzerland, the applicant must be a Swiss national, hold a Swiss work permit or be a national of one of the EU countries.

The position will be based in the firm's Geneva city centre office where the standard language in use is English.

Availability: as soon as possible
